

TEAMWORK

“Teamwork is the ability to work towards a common vision; the ability to direct individual accomplishments towards organizational objectives. It is the fuel that allows common people to attain uncommon results.”

- Andrew Carnegie

Heart of a Champion

In light of the corporate scandals of 2003, the decision was made to launch the Heart of a Champion Corporate Learning series. Our programs are proven to enhance individual and corporate character and ethical behavior, while providing measurable improvement to a client's bottom-line business.

n. team-work

1. Cooperative effort by members of a group to achieve a common goal

Many of the world's top entertainers, athletes, and business leaders are great individual performers, but don't necessarily make good team members. Many of them create a lot of damage on their path to success because they are self-focused rather than others-focused. The true champions of industry, sports, and media have humbled themselves and become "team players" truly focused on teamwork. They are willing to set aside their own personal success for the benefit of the team or group.

The Heart of a Champion Leadership program seeks to build a stronger culture of teamwork within your organization so that everyone really does achieve more together than they could on their own.

At the end of this program, participants will be able to:

- ▶ Define what teamwork means as they interact with their peers, leaders, and other colleagues in formal or informal team settings.
- ▶ Effectively contribute to the success of a group effort by leveraging their unique talents and the diverse abilities of others.
- ▶ Place the needs and success of a team effort ahead of their own personal needs.
- ▶ Build a strong sense of trust with their peers, leaders, and others they interact with on a regular basis.
- ▶ Develop a personal action plan for improving teamwork in their work group.
